

Do not rush to a vote on June 2 that would change the current rules on station ownership. I don't want the rules to serve primarily private ownership and leave the public dependent solely upon media monopolies.